General Walters:

STAT [redacted] from the Office of National Estimates, would like to come down to pay his respects. He said he met you [redacted] on TDY from Vietnam, that you were very nice to him, and that at the time he was in the process of writing a book (attached -- which he'd like to have back.

If you agree to see him, I'll just call him when you have a free moment in your schedule. DONE 4/19

General Walters has inquired if it is appropriate to charge off to the Government the cost of flowers sent to a foreign hostess, in this case [redacted] who entertained him at dinner here. Social obligation is a by-product of his Government work. Imagine this is the kind of question we will get from him more than others because he has so many foreign contacts as a result of his previous work.
